

Banks' Bank

The two hours of prayer each day continues to be amazing. Even some of our "skeptics" that have attended found themselves getting a word from the Lord and the Scripture to go with it, and as one said, "I don't even know the Bible that well!" If you have a chance please try to join us. Friday, Monday and Tuesday (the 21st is our last day!) we meet at 8 AM. This Saturday we meet at 10 AM. Sunday we meet at 8:30 AM.

The Spirit has convicted, comforted, challenged, reassured, loved, warned, and warmed us over the last nine days. The truly amazing thing has been how the children and youth have been used by the Spirit. The children have drawn incredible scenes of mangers, angels, healings, deliverances, and worship, and the both the youth and the children have spoken with wisdom well beyond their years. If you have been staying away because this seems just too plain "weird" then you have been missing a blessing. Hey, it seemed a little weird to me, but then again, when I left the UMC everyone told me I was "insane." But so far, God has been really, really good to my family, to me, and to all of us at AllPoints!

God bless you all!

Love,

Banks
