

Banks' Bank

By the time you read this, our 14 days of prayer will almost be over. Please join us TONIGHT, Tuesday, November 21st, at 7 PM for our last prayer session.

For those of us who have been able to be there for every session, it has been quite a journey. More than one of us was ready to quit--quit praying, quit the church, quit, quit, quit! But, once again, as we hung in there, we found out that God is good, all the time, and All the time, God is good! He used this time to break us of bias and prejudice, judgmentalism, pride, envy, you name it, and it got broken down during the last 13 days. On Monday, He showed us how light the load becomes when it is the one Jesus really wants to put on you, instead of the heavy loads we like to labor under!

Join us tonight for a great time in prayer and CELEBRATION! The kids don't have school on Wednesday, and we can come together for a great time of fellowship in His presence.

Don't forget we will not have Wednesday night supper this week, and next week we have our Hanging of the Greens service to decorate the church for Advent and Christmas.

Join us! The best is yet to come!

Love,

Banks

Look for them in your inbox the night before. Each devotional will include a Scripture the Lord gave us during these 14 days of prayer, and a word he gave us. Banks will have some questions for your personal reflection accompanying each Scripture/word. As we move toward one accord through these devotionals, he will be preparing us for the outreach and ministry he has for us in this community and region. We are on the verge of arriving at the church He wants us to be! It is an exciting time for us!
